

Hindu Lawyers Association - Events for 2013

Mooting Competition - London 16 March - BPP Holborn

Since October 2012, students from different universities across the country have been taking part in mooted competitions to represent their university at the first national HLA mooted competition.

Guide to the Samaj- Launching June 2013

An information guide which aims to help community institutions and organisations overcome common issues they may face, this included planning permission, parking, fire safety and internal governance.

Ek- Jawab- Launching June 2013

This project aims to formalise the free legal advice service that the HLA have been offering for Hindu community organisations and temples. The project sees students and qualified lawyers working together to solve matters in the Hindu community.

Work placement schemes- July 2013

In the legal profession experience and academic success go hand in hand. The informal work placement schemes are being piloted this way to help law students gain invaluable experience over the summer in order to progress their legal careers. The scheme will finish with each student being allocated a mentor at the end of the placement.

Diwali – 14 November

Diwali is the most widely celebrated Hindu festival and the HLA are looking to celebrate it with their annual inspirational event. This year the theme will be based on the community and they will be working together with other organisations to ensure this event is more successful than last years.

For more information, please email Dhanisha Patel