PS

The key source of information on probate law

PS is published six times a year by the Law Society Private Client Section. It keeps practitioners up-to-date with industry news and pertinent legal developments via in-depth articles and practical guidance.

Why you should advertise in PS

Readers of PS include solicitors working in the fields of wills, financial planning, trusts, tax planning, Court of Protection, care planning and estate administration – offering you a unique opportunity to target this niche sector.

Expert coverage includes:

- Industry news
- Legislation
- Technical knowledge
- Cross-jurisdictional matters
- Associated areas of work (genealogy, insurance etc)
- IT
- Books and other resources
- Training and professional development
- Recruitment
- Law Society governance
- Conferences and events.

Members are also able to access past and present issues of PS online

Offers CPD points

By taking an online quiz related to PS content, members now have the opportunity to claim valuable Continuing Professional Development (CPD) points, which all practising solicitors must gain each year*.

Publishing dates

PS is published six times a year in January, March, May, July, September and November.

About the Private Client Section
