Professional indemnity insurance brokers

Last updated: 4 March 2010

This is a non-exhaustive list of brokers that offer professional indemnity insurance for solicitors through qualifying insurers. The fact that a broker is included on the list should not be taken as an indication of approval or vetting by the Law Society. Brokers are listed in alphabetical order. If you are a professional indemnity insurance broker and want to be added to this list, please e-mail us at web.publishing@lawsociety.org.uk.

Aon Limited

Aon is a specialist intermediary to the legal profession and has been so for over 30 years. We deal with all firms from sole practitioners to the magic circle.

For sole practitioners and two to 10-partner firms, we have exclusive arrangements ensuring we deliver value to your organisation. We offer a first-class claims service through Aon Claims Solutions, and a free self assessment quality assurance tool is available to clients and prospects, that enables your firm to perform a systematic review of your management systems & processes.

For larger law firms we offer a more tailored insurance programme, ensuring we can provide a service to suit your firm's individual needs. To deliver this, we access insurers in the open market for comparative quotes.

Balens

BALENS act as the appointed Insurance Brokers for the Solicitors Group who provide CPD membership benefits and conferences to the legal profession.

Both organisations have considerable experience and expertise in their respective fields. Balens are Affinity Group Specialists for Malpractice, PI and Liability and have evolved over many years highly sophisticated Affinity Group IT Systems enabling swift issuing of documents, online renewal facilities, efficiently handling between 45-50,000 clients and over 180 Affinity Groups. They are an independent ethical firm going back over 3 generations and founded in 1950. The Managing Director, David Balen, will be handling the scheme. David has been a Broker and IFA for nearly 40 years, and also lectures widely, including at Oxford Brookes and Middlesex Universities on various aspects of Business and Risk Management. He is also a trustee of a number charities, and Balens are strongly involved also in insuring the not for profit sector.

The SOLICITORS group currently has membership of over 1250 firms whose considerable buying power ensures a good deal for Members in respective of various professional services on offer. The Managing Director is Adrian Dion, originally, a qualified solicitor. Some years back as a previous Director of Law Net, he successfully launched and delivered a quality £550,000,000 scheme for that quality group of Law Firms. The combination of the two organisations will provide in depth expertise in delivering a range of Insurance Services for the legal profession.
