

Litigation Funding is your essential guide to finance and costs

Costs and financing litigation are often complex issues. Litigation Funding provides accurate coverage and in-depth comment. By reading Litigation Funding, it will help you keep up-to-date on the financing of litigation as well as informing you on essential costs issues.

Litigation Funding covers:

Litigation financing:

- Best buys of after-the-event insurance products
- Innovative funding structures
- Analysis of groundbreaking cases funded by CFAs
- Best practice and procedures to adopt
- The emerging third-party funding market

Costs:

- Analysis of the latest costs case law, including questions over proportionality and developing jurisdictions such as third-party costs orders
- Investigation of efforts to keep a check on costs, such as budgets, estimates and capping
- The impact of the new Solicitors' Code of Conduct 2007
- How to maximise your recovery, handle assessments, and negotiate and settle
- Exclusive access to Civil Justice Council costs forums and other key events

Litigation Funding* includes an invaluable and unique table of ATE products for use with CFAs, now featuring 34 providers. Each month, the key amendments to the table are highlighted and explained.

Recent features include:

- Exclusive report on CJC third-party funding forum
- First interview with Susan Dunn since her move to Harbour Litigation Funding
- The growing use of CFAs in clinical negligence cases
- We examine three very different group actions run under CFAs
- Court rulings on CFA Lite, discounted CFAs and union funding
- Costs in arbitrations

“Litigation Funding is simply the market-leading publication in its field. It is internationally recognised, and is often cited as an authority in our most senior courts.”

Robert Musgrove Chief Executive, Civil Justice Council, Royal Courts of Justice, London
