

The Law Society

The Graham Turnbull Memorial Fund

Charity number 1082393

Graham Turnbull was an English solicitor, who did much to promote respect for human rights. Graham was killed in February 1997, aged 37, while working as a human rights monitor on the United Nations Human Rights Mission in Rwanda.

The Law Society's International Human Rights Committee is proud to honour Graham's commitment to human rights through the establishment of the Fund. It funds the first prize in an annual essay competition, the aim of which is to encourage awareness and knowledge of international human rights issues and remedies among young lawyers.

The Committee and the Trustees wish to thank in particular the following for their help and donations:

The Trustees of the Law Society Charity

The very generous solicitor who wishes to remain anonymous

Mr Ian Martin

Ms Kate Mackintosh and other friends and former UN colleagues of Graham's

The Staff Fund at the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights

Contributions to the Fund may be sent to:

The Graham Turnbull Memorial Fund

International Department

The Law Society

113 Chancery Lane

London WC2A 1PL