Statement of directors' responsibilities

United Kingdom company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of the financial year and of the profit and loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for the system of internal control, for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Independent auditor's report to the members of The Law Society Trustees Limited

We have audited the financial statements of The Law Society Trustees Limited for the year ended 5 April 2008 which comprise the Profit and Loss Account, the Balance Sheet and the related notes. These financial statements have been prepared under the accounting policies set out therein.

Respective responsibilities of directors and auditors

The directors' responsibilities for preparing the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice) are set out in the Statement of Directors' Responsibilities.

Our responsibility is to audit the financial statements in accordance with relevant legal and regulatory requirements and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland).

We report to you our opinion as to whether the financial statements give a true and fair view and have been properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985 and whether the information given in the Directors' Report is consistent with those financial statements. We also report to you if, in our opinion, the company has not kept proper accounting records, if we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit, or if information specified by law regarding directors' remuneration and other transactions is not disclosed.

We read the Directors' Report and consider the implications for our report if we become aware of any apparent misstatements within it.

Our report has been prepared pursuant to the requirements of the Companies Act 1985 and for no other purpose. No person is entitled to rely on this report unless such a person is a person entitled to rely upon this report by virtue of and for the purpose of the Companies Act 1985 or has been expressly authorised to do so by our prior written consent. Save as above, we do not accept responsibility for this report to any other person or for any other purpose and we hereby expressly disclaim any and all such liability.

Basis of audit opinion

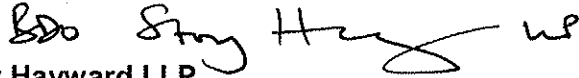

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland) issued by the Auditing Practices Board. An audit includes examination, on a test basis, of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. It also includes an assessment of the significant estimates and judgments made by the directors in the preparation of the financial statements, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the company's circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed.

We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or other irregularity or error. In forming our opinion we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial statements.

Opinion

In our opinion:

- the financial statements give a true and fair view, in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice, of the state of the company's affairs as at 5 April 2008 and of its result for the year then ended;
- the financial statements have been properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985; and
- the information given in the Directors' Report is consistent with the financial statements.

The Law Society Charity

Constitution

The Charity was created by a Trust Deed dated 11 December 1974 made between the Law Society of England and Wales (the "Law Society") and The Law Society Trustees Limited, the Charity's Trustee. It is a registered charity identified by the number 268736.

Under the Trust Deed, the Trustee stands possessed of the trust fund of the Charity absolutely upon trust for the Charity within its absolute discretion but in particular for:

1. the continuation and furtherance of legal education and the acquisition of legal knowledge by any charitable means;
2. the College of Law incorporated under the Companies Act 1948 and any other similar institution or body being itself a registered charity;
3. scholarships, exhibitions, bursaries, prizes or grants to be awarded, given or made for the furtherance of legal education or for research into the laws of England and other jurisdictions; and
4. the discharge from time to time of such of the charitable obligations (if any) imposed upon the Law Society by Statute or otherwise as may be within the scope of the Trusts.

Objectives and activities

The Charity is essentially a grant making charity. The Board of the Trustee regularly reviews the outline aims and objectives of the Charity, which are:

1. supporting the education of the public in legal matters and members of the profession in the interests of the public, in particular by assisting in the maintenance of high standards of general legal education in the profession;
2. supporting charities whose principal aims are to support members of the profession in need;
3. seeking out and supporting, whether in partnership with others or alone:
 - (i) Major charitable projects which will be supported by local Law Societies and groups (and other means of outreach);
 - (ii) Exploring joint ventures with other charities, particularly with the charitable arms of firms of solicitors;
4. supporting charitable work done internationally to promote human rights, such as assistance in the development of law, general promotion of legal education and Pro Bono assistance for people facing capital punishment; and
5. in exceptional cases, responding to ad hoc applications for support from other charitable organisations whose work redounds to the credit of the profession, but generally not those with narrow geographical limits.
6. in fulfilling these aims and objectives the Board will recognise and, where appropriate, act to promote the particular needs of excluded, under-represented or disadvantaged groups.

The Law Society Charity

Recruitment and appointment of trustees

When a vacancy for a Council Member trustee arises, a standard letter is sent to all Law Society Council Members asking for their expressions of interest in the vacancy. If more than one expression of interest is received then applicants are asked to complete a standard Board vacancy application form. This application form, together with the original expression of interest is presented to the Board at the next meeting for consideration.

When a vacancy for a non-Council Member trustee arises, an advertisement is placed in appropriate publications, such as the Gazette and interested parties are asked to complete an application form and the application forms are short listed by a panel of current board members, including the Chair and the Company Secretary, then interviewed. The successful candidate(s) are informed that their appointment to the Board will be recommended at the next Board meeting, where the final decision is taken.

Induction and training of new trustees

Upon formal confirmation of a new trustee's appointment, they are sent copies of the Memorandum of Association, the Articles of Association and the Trust Deed.

The Company Secretary holds an induction meeting for each new trustee.

Equality and diversity training is provided for all trustees.

Organisational structure

The Board must have at least five members and no more than twenty. As at 5 April 2008, there were fourteen members made up of seven Council Members and seven non-Council members.

Company Secretarial, finance and administration support is provided by Law Society staff.

Risk assessment

The Trustee regularly assesses the risks to which the Charity is exposed. Members of its Board are satisfied that the systems in place manage the exposure to major risk.

Investment powers

The Trust Deed of the Charity permits wide powers of investment of monies of the Charity not immediately required for its purposes. However, there is no power in the Deed for the Charity to undertake any permanent trading activities to raise funds to meet the objects of the Charity.

The Law Society Charity

Several other smaller awards were made of £5,000 or less.

Reserves, grant making policy and the future

It is not the aim of the Charity to accumulate large cash balances; however, it has sufficient funds to meet its commitments to further funding. It is the aim of the Charity to continue to make grants and donations within the above objects and policies according to the income it receives.

The charity intends to continue its charitable activities and has been working closely with the Law Society to agree a longer term business plan including charitable fund raising.

By order of the Board of the Trustee.

Statement of Trustee's responsibilities

Law applicable to charities in England and Wales requires the Trustee to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the incoming resources and application of the resources of the Charity for that period and of its state of affairs at the end of the year. In preparing financial statements giving a true and fair view, the trustee should follow best practice and:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

The Trustee is responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Charity and which enable it to ascertain its financial position and to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 1993, the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2005 and the Trust Deed. It is also responsible for the system of internal control, for safeguarding the assets of the Charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Report of the Independent auditors to the trustee of The Law Society Charity

We have audited the financial statements of The Law Society Charity for the year ended 5 April 2008 which comprise the statement of financial activities, the charity balance sheet and the related notes. These financial statements have been prepared under the accounting policies set out therein.

Respective responsibilities of Trustee and auditors

The trustees' responsibilities for preparing the annual report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice) are set out in the Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities.

Our responsibility is to audit the financial statements in accordance with relevant legal and regulatory requirements and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland).

We report to you our opinion as to whether the financial statements give a true and fair view and are properly prepared in accordance with the Charities Act 1993. We also report to you if, in our opinion, the Trustees' Report is not consistent with the financial statements, if the charity has not kept proper accounting records, if we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit, or if information specified by law regarding trustees' remuneration and transactions with the charity is not disclosed.

We read the Trustees' Report and consider the implications for our report if we become aware of any apparent misstatements within it.

Our report has been prepared pursuant to the requirements of the Charities Act 1993 and for no other purpose. No person is entitled to rely on this report unless such a person is a person entitled to rely upon this report by virtue of and for the purpose of the Charities Act 1993 or has been expressly authorised to do so by our prior written consent. Save as above, we do not accept responsibility for this report to any other person or for any other purpose and we hereby expressly disclaim any and all such liability

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland) issued by the Auditing Practices Board. An audit includes examination, on a test basis, of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. It also includes an assessment of the significant estimates and judgements made by the trustees in the preparation of the financial statements, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the charity's circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed.

We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or other irregularity or error. In forming our opinion we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial statements.

In our opinion:

- the financial statements give a true and fair view, in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice, of the state of affairs of the charity at 5 April 2008 and of the charity's incoming resources and resources expended, including its income and expenditure, for the year then ended; and
- the charity financial statements have been properly prepared in accordance with the Charities Act 1993.
