The Diversity Access Scheme (DAS) Application Criteria 2020

Please note that DAS 2020 is only open to those ready to start the LPC in September 2020 or January 2021.

1.1 Financial criteria
Applicants must be unable to finance the cost of their legal practice course (LPC) fees.

They will be required to confirm that:

a) They do not have access to familial loans; and
b) They do not have savings or investments of over £5,000; and

1.2 Background
Applicants will be required to confirm two or more of the following statements:

a) They attended a non-fee paying school
b) They are part of the first generation of their family to attend higher education

c) They were eligible for free school meals whilst at school.

If an applicant fulfils criteria 1.1 and 1.2 they are automatically eligible to apply for the DAS and do not need to fulfil criteria under 1.3 below.

1.3 Exceptional circumstances
If an applicant fulfils all the criteria under 1.1 but does not fulfil two or more of the criteria under 1.2 they may still be eligible to apply for the DAS if they have faced or will face exceptional circumstances to pursue their studies and career ambitions as a result of their:

- Cultural background
- Health problems
- Disability
- Gender
- Sexuality
- Race
- Religion or
- Other extreme personal circumstances.

Candidates will be required to provide a brief description of their challenging circumstances on the application form. For examples of circumstances that the DAS short listing panel have considered exceptional and not exceptional in past applications, please see the table overleaf to consider whether you may be eligible.
